

The New York Nut Growers Association (NYNGA) and
The Pennsylvania Nut Growers Association (PNGA) invite you to a Joint Spring Meeting

Saturday, April 21, 2018

9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Delaware Valley University, 700 East Butler Avenue, Doylestown, PA 18901

Morning Session - Presentations
Afternoon Session - Demonstrations in the greenhouse and in the field
(weather permitting)

Anyone zealous about growing nut trees is welcome to come!

Registration? The $12 per person fee includes: breakfast, mid-morning snacks, printed handouts on nut growing, two red oak seedlings, black walnut and butternut seed nuts for planting, a sampling of nuts grown in this area, and scion wood. For $9 (tax included), an all-you-can eat buffet lunch will be available in the cafeteria, payable in cash or credit card (as you enter).

Where to Stay? A block of rooms (two double beds) for Friday, April 20, at $139 (plus tax) has been reserved at the Hampton Inn-Warrington, 1570 Easton Road, Warrington, PA, at Delaware Valley University's corporate rate. Call 215-343-8400 to reserve your room - as soon as possible - and mention you are with the NY/PA Nut Growers Associations to get that rate.

Questions? Contact Jerry Henkin, NYNGA President, sproutnut@aol.com or 914-282-1371 for possible room sharing and/or carpooling.
